personally i believe that ALL comics are getting bad. its like the 90s all over again, with cross-overs and company wide events that DETRACT from the good, monthly stories i love. I LOVED batgirl before she went insane, and i LOVED Robin before he went Emo. And i LIKED Teen Titans before it got both insane AND emo-y. but all of those changed were done to SELL, and sadly, they never work.

on topic, i think that Bats will onl be dead long enough to sell a few books, and then he'll be back before the end of the year, with ANOTHER BLOODY COMPANY WIDE CORSSOVER >_____<
