I see the issue about band width. Does that result in getting the following when I try to upload?

XOOPS_URL is not included in your REFERER

Or does this point to some other issue I need to look into?

Been trying to add a photo for several weeks and get the above when I hit submit button.

Thanks for the help.

Robert

That's a new one to me.

You were very helpful Bio.

(BTW) I have NO clue.
