The rules are "on or before the 8th" the 8th being the deadline. Heromorph members post the work to Heromorph and c2f members post to c2f. I'm guessing, since most of us are done, we are waiting till the 8th for a mass reveal to mirror c2fs update schedual.

I'm not quite sure how it works on the C2F side.
Max and Mike are driving.

As an aside:

I think it would be nice on our part (HM'ers) to post a title something to the effect of "HM/C2F crossover by XXX and XXX" so your partners name will be directly attached to the pic. in the search fuction, as well as giving them an oportunity to post their art notes via "XXX writes: blah blah blah" in the description field, but then again if you have copious amounts of art notes you might just post it in the first comment.
