Hi! Yes, I am doing commissions -- generally $300.00 to $350.00 for line art, and $400.00 to $500.00 if full color.

They are the level of the color art you see me posting here on Heromorph. Yes, 'll do BANZAI GIRL< but I can also do pretty much any other characters.

For the full color versions, you get not only the personalized originmal commission drawn from your description, but also two full-color prints -- 11" x 17" and 13" x 19" -- and the high-res color file on a disk.

Any questions, please ask -- here or write me at banzaigirlmc@aol.com

Hugs,
