I hope so!

Millenium Bum has been promising to show me something 'tomorrow' for 2 weeks now but I still haven't seen anything.

He is someone who is supposedly a 'fast' worker so I find it deliciously ironic that some of the people who claimed to be 'slow' or wanted more time have been chomping at the bit for days to show us their finished work. I hear there are going to be some outstanding results.

Max - waiting in hope and fear.
