Okay, put on a pair of rubber gloves, shave your head, spin around three times, sing the coconut song then post.

Max - funny thing is Bikerbot probably does that every time he posts. ;)

Okay, ha ha, but this was your show, mate, I would have imagined it would be a little more important to you.

I did everything except sing the coconut song before I posted, because I don't know it, but I did it all with my pants down, while Wrinklehawk stood next to me and took pictures. (After he put his mouse back in it's house... Hey, don't blame me, he wrote it!)

I suggest locking this thread tomorrow and starting a post - posting thread where we can both...

A) provide links to the pics. in case of flood.

B) Harrass everybody whos late.

Good plan, but you really can't harrass the C2F'ers here, can you?

And leave Android alone. (Cause I said so, that's why!)
