A couple of things I've seen mentioned on this subject.

-Look at the Disney/Pixar acquisition. Disney has been great about leaving Pixar alone to do their thing, hopefully they'll take the same approach with Marvel. Speaking of which, since they're all in the same house now, we could see Marvel animated projects from Pixar, which could be ridiculously cool.

-For my fellow gamers out there, just imagine where they can take the Kingdom Hearts franchise. Wolverine fighting Sephiroth?? Hells yeah!
