Ahh, Hawk, ever the salesman.

Multiple accounts could mean potential multiple monetary contributions, eh?

More potential HMDC customers...etc.

I see how your mind works, you Conniving Capitalistic Cannuck!

Just kidding, WH!

A feature like that is definitely worth paying for.

(And I know donations are voluntary, too. Although it would be cool if more of the great artists out there would join this awesome community and share some of their work, too!)

I never even thought about setting up an SFW account.

Great suggestion.
