That's a funny story, mrdock. Of all the Star Trek anecdotes I must admit I didn't know of that one. I recall Dawn Wells saying that the office would send someone down on the set to check on Mary Ann's navel or Ginger's cleavage, but I always got the impression it was just a formality that no one took seriously. After all they seemed to be in plain view on film.

I am tickled you laughed.

I had it mind to repeat the magic mirror story but ends up differently each time.
