So here's the challenge. It's Halloween and we need Halloween avatars, but not just any Halloween Avatars. Take any Heromorph Character such as Bio, Lady H or Jr. and dress them in a Halloween costume, a cheesy typical Halloween one. The only catch, the image has to be Avatar sized for the forum. Post them in the gallery put Halloween Avatars in the title. If you want to use them for the month go ahead. We'll pick the best and do something with it, who knows. Winner gets a trick or a treat, our choice.
