So i went away for a week.

I'm back now.

Thought I'd post up the two things I did while I was gone.

Also I wanted to thank everyone for your advise and support about my friend problem.

For now I've decided I'm cutting out most of my friends, If they believed that I was what I'm not then they don't know me, don't want to and never were my friends.

So you guys helped me realize this.

I am just going to focus on my wonderful boyfriend and our life.

Things are going beyond fantastic with us and friends will come when they do.

So anyway my vacation to Florida was really therapeutic. My Avatar is a picture of me there :)

I wish it could have lasted longer but hey, time to make the money to go on long vacations. Or just move. lol

Anyway I thought I'd say hi to everyone.

Oh, and I've noticed a lot of Heromorph members finding me on DA, so if you haven't yet and want to here is a link to my page.
