Ok here goes. first round of homework.

Daruma - I think you need work on your lighting. I would like to see you do a picture with some really dramatic lighting in it. Maybe something with multiple light sources with different coloured lights would be nice.

JrMcDeath - Dude it was hard thinking for something for you because you kick some serious Butt. But here goes, I noticed in all your pictures they were pin-up types, I would like to see an action shot or a over the top display of powers from you. Some really crazy special effects.

DK - are you still checking?

Batmic - You are dam hard cause you have done everything and you have done it well but.. Nope still got nothing for you. I will keep thinking on it.

Brick - this was mostly your Idea and you did not sign up
I find that Funny.

Feel free to challenge each other and me as well guys. Also anyone else that wants to sign up feel free to jump on the bandwagon.
