OUCH!

co, too funny. She comes in through the pet door...very "cat-like"

And in the third panel of the top...is she actually scratching to come in? Sweet.

But I think the most interesting thing here is the outfit. Very cat-burglarish. (Yes, I made that word up.)

But it also reminds me very much of the classic Batman villainesses' outfit worn by Lee Merriwether.

One of the original "Catwomen"

Another classic here, co. And bungling, too, how very April of her. These pages remind me a lot of that TV series, with its clever alliteration, obvious comedy, slap-stick wit, and tightly clad babe-burglar.

Awesome stuff yet again. (Oh yeah, and of course the obligatory shots of kitty's "tail" were great touches, too.)

Burgle door....ha!
