So this is just an odd poll that I came up with.

Got out of the shower and was wondering if anyone else has done this... so here's the question.

After getting out of the shower, have you ever put on one of your favorite songs and danced naked until you were dressed?

(I highly suggest it, very goofy, and fun. I've got three mirrors in my room so I make lots of funny faces. I think this is when I relax the most...lol)

...Don't hate....
