You can nominate your own work or yourself if you wish.

And, Please, when you post your nominees, post also a link to what or whom you're nominating.
Thank You.

Period eligible for nominations is from Jan, 1st 2009 until Dec, 31 2009. Any image, story or members that joined during that period (speaking of best new artist) is eligible for the nominations.

The nominations period will end on February, 15th 2010, then a secret panel of judges will choose 5 nominees in each category to go to the final voting by the members, so when You make your nominations, also try to convince them why your nominees should win.

When the judges make their selections among the nominees posted here, I will post the thumbs with a link for their selections here in this thread and will start a poll for all members to decide the winners.

Have fun, get ready and post here your favorites.
