I have been requested by a user on another site to submit my image of Arisia
-<http://heromorph.com/heromorph2/modules/myalbum4/photo.php?lid=10182> as a print to purchase.
Anyway, while this is my interpretation of her, she is a copyrighted character from D.C. comics. My question for the experts here, what could the ramifications be of selling it?
