Thanks for the info! I was thinking of taking a shot at it by grabbing something like a duster from the old west gear (the Green Hornet is, after all, the Grand-Nephew of the Lone Ranger) unless I can find some kind of trench coat. I think there's also a bandana-style mask with some of the old west outfits.

Still learning this whole thing but having lots of fun! Anyone who's interested can check out my first few efforts on Art Zone by looking for wmwconnors!
