I would have to say that while I do get miffed at seeing one artist flood a gallery with similarly looking pics, I personally have a problem with the ratings system.

I recently posted a piece that I had spent quite a bit of time on and shortly after going up it received a two star rating. No comment was left to let me know why this was only a 2 star piece of work. In order for this to function more as a community I think the two need to be linked, you can't post a rating without writing a comment and vice versa. Maybe even go an extra step and require a minimum number of art posts to make a rating.

I apologize, that had been weighing on me and I found the board to say it. Just my two cents.
