Well, as you know, Redd, I often struggle to find words, and thusly my comments are often short and pointless...

HA!

I could write another novel describing how amazing this looks actually getting to see your work take shape before my eyes.

Or describe my awe at how you start with the highlights and work darker for most of it. Or even comment on how great this looked even in its semi-completed stage.

But nope. I'm simply gonna say this:

DAAAAAAAAAMMMMMMMMMNNNNNNN!

Thanks for sharing that with us, and I look forward to seeing the colorization process

:)
