I saw dis on tuesday.

I liked it, I liked it a lot.

A few things I didn't like about it as well.

1. Rhodey was replaced. The new guy did just fine but I hate it when they replace one one or two actors here and there in a franchise.
2. instead of being charming and cute the chemistry between RDJr and Paltrow was changed into her being a complaining bitch that was followed up with her kissing his ass in almost every scene they had together with one exception were she acted kinda like a bitch the whole way thru. One of the things I liked about the first movie was that Potts was not a wimpering pile of tv sitcom wife.

that said the effects were fantastic, the fights were good and the overall movie was good.
