the color scheme is wrong, .

These pictures were taken from the production on location, when they filmed the movie they have to do color correction to the photography, I think it won't look like those pictures.

And talking about the skull bikes the look toooo muuuch futuristic, I think that's wrong.

Another think, personally I like better the original marvel universe, but the captain america from the ultimate universe is more interesting to me, is more of a soldier (with a temper) than the original.

Let's hope for the best
