"Dar Humbug!"

OK Folks, as usual we need to blame Dar for the Night Heromorph's Christmas almost died. (Like everything else, its his fault:)

Don't be a Scrooge and share some holiday cheer! Name of the game is Secret Santa. Deadline for Sign ups will be Sunday the 12th (Sorry for the very short notice) but this would be the closest time that could be allowed to get gifts submitted by 12:00 PM PST Dec 24th. Post it on the Site with "Secret Santa" in the title.

To Sign up simply reply to this post including in it, up to 3 characters you would like to see done, along with any preference for the image you would like to see (ie Adult or not) and what you are willing to work on, so I can better pair Santa with their receiver.

Remember. To get a gift you have to give one as well. This means you must be able to create an image to give in return. So there will not be any asking for a free image and giving nothing in return. You will only get a lump of Coal.

On the 13th I will send you a PM that will include who your Secret Santa along with their Wish List
