My wife recently got a full-time job as a marketing professor at a college in Florida, which is where we used to live before having to move to Texas five years ago. So, now we are in the process of packing everything up and getting the house ready to sell. She's already there, but I have to wait for the sale until I can go with our 3 kids. Thankfully I have my mother-in-law's help! LOL! Anyway, that means that although I want to try and do some more artwork and have some more stuff posted by the end of this month, and also have some stuff posted for January, I'm just not sure if I can accomplish that. So, Page 26 of my comic might be the last thing for a while, or if I'm lucky it might not, we'll see.
