And only 63 ,So energetic, intrepid, and cute!

I always was a Whovian and still am.

I was glad to see her reprise her role on the new Doctor Who series.

Didn't know she passed till the end of the first episode of the 2nd season of Matt Smith's Doctor Who where it is stated

"In Memory of Elisabeth Sladen"

I have all the first season of "The Sarah Jane Adventures" downloaded and still haven't watched them yet.

I know there's another season out there and not sure if there's anymore.
