those who would see our wills bent to their twisted design (BB, Max, I'm lookin in your direction).

Don't include me in the same boat as Bikerbot!

My twisted design is <I>entirely</I> different from his twisted design.

My brilliant plan is to take over the world using an army of robot-monkeys.

I understand that BB's idea is to attempt world domination with an army of monkey-robots (how foolish is that?).

See? Completely different.

Max - if you're going to stick a monkey's brain somewhere, it might as well be inside a deadly robot.
