Hey 'Morphers,

just wanted to let ya'll know that i have begun the artist spotlights again. Every week, i'll be posting the interview in this thread, so that we all can learn a little more about the people that make the art we enjoy in the galleries.

so, i will be sending members pm's with my questions. if you do NOT wish to participate, just let me know as your reply.

Thanks everybody!

Billy

remember, don't post your answers here, send them to me, and i will take care of it. you can pm or email me.
