Yes, Lame. The Iron Patriot suit was no match for Iron Man. It was less powerful, and if I remember correctly, Tony hacked into it and shut it down. That should be about 5 minutes of the movie. If he is truly the main bad guy in IM3... then I worry about that franchise. I have liked the first 2... PLEASE, movie maker peeps, do NOT make this the main baddie. Hell, the suit doesn't (DIDN'T) even have any Stark technology. Just the metal. YAWN... boring.
