Hi everyone, it has been like two years. :)I'm sorry I disappeared here, kept on posting on DA but my life sort of exploded and I could not keep up. BUT I never forgot this great community and I just wanted to say hi.

I posted something new here for everyone here:

If you all want to keep up with me daily my official Facebook is here:

I promise I will try to post here more often. Although I will be gone for most of July. :D

lots of love to my favorite people,

Redd
