Lately, I've had an urge to write stories about lesbian superheroines engaging in filthy, depraved BDSM orgies (basically, the kind of thing Tyval and Vicki O'Danner have been known to write, if anyone's familiar with them.) Normally, I'd post such stories to Grey Archive or Lady Comics Slash Site, but with the former site now barely alive, and the latter site having closed, I find myself in search of new venues. So... would there be an audience for that sort of thing here?
