I can't really blame them from a marketing point of view. With the current comics being in the triple digits, it is hard for new people to get hooked on a comic series when there are so many tangent off shoots and alternate universes that it is hard for some one just jumping on the band wagon to follow instead of catching it from the beginning.

Like a Soap Opera, they can only recycle A lover in a Coma, an Evil twin, Siblings falling in love only to find out they were separated at birth , a character that dies and comes back to life. Brainwashing and Amnesia.
