My thoughts are with you and your family, Wolf. I'd seen a few references to chemo in your recent posts, but I had no idea things had progressed so far.

I do have some small knowledge of Who (read: I've seen every episode multiple times, including reconstructions of the missing ones, and own a near-complete run of Doctor Who Magazine, many of the original novels, and most of the audio dramas.) If time allows, I'll do my best to throw something together in your honour.

Happy times and places.
