Jeez when the big guy upstairs calls ya..saying "not right now" usually isn't an option. I myself had a recent heart episode about a month back but nothing a decent diet and rest couldn't curtail..so i can sort of relate to Wolf> I salute his braveness in this troubling time and wish him nothing but the best! As far as contributing an image..my plate's pretty full right now and I'm not well versed in Dr. Who lore, but i would like to put together something to show my support if i'm able.
