This is a image I intend to finish before Halloween - Originally based on the color layer of a DPS page of Marvel Zombies I worked on this is a remake of that DPS page spread it will comprise of 8 different characters I will try to put some closeups of some of the characters as I go get opinions before done (I will add the links as additional messages)

Galacts is created using numerous metal pieces and a real altered face. as well as using brown leather imagery recolored a bit for some of the burgundy regions - A real backdrop appropriate to image

While this is a work in art - lots of it are still rough

Solid color regions are where art will be placed

Sorry cannot post full-size images in this forum - image is also located here ->
