Just kidding. This is truly a great honor (considering this is the first challenge I've ever won) I owe most of it to Dark Knight (that Superwolf was incredible). Bouncing ideas back and forth with him was great and seeing how the pic progressed from step A-Z was cool as well. Until next time. Thank you Heromorph (more applause...curtains close).

Das said it all, just want to add that it was a team effort and thanks to the people who voted for our pic.
