Honestly...I got nothing, but she's a bit of a butterface... maybe its her makeup though. well it's not just the face that's buttery. she's thick through and through. nothing comes to mine for me..but considering its your first try..you can't go wrong with she-hulk..pretty much one of the easiest manips there is!

Hey, I don't mind the thickness, but I couldn't deal with that face. She looks a wee bit too manish for my tastes. The thickness I like, I mean geez..check out those thighs...HOT DAMN!
