Ok per Jr's request, a little feed back as to how this will work.

The Contest will be a test of multiple use of art mediums including Photo Manipulation, Drawing and 3D art.

1. Participants will be paired off against each other in a Bracket Format Set up.
2. Round one will be one set of rules, i.e Each pairing will be given a base image to make into whoever they want, and have one month to finish. Voting will take place. Winners of the round will be re-paired in the bracket and given a new set of rules and another month to finish. This will continue until there is 1 winner remaining.

The Length of the contest will depend on the number of participants.
