I've just posted my first vids to Youtube. I hope you all stop by and take a look and I'd really appreciate a comment and/or "like".

It's all recycling, really. Just a couple slide shows...

I set my first comic, Benny the Bouncer to the ELP song here:

and then I did a little retrospective of a bunch of my pics done over the last several years in (mostly) chronological order here:

Check 'em out! Let me know what you think!
