Sorry I haven't been here in a while...been working on the bucket list, moving into new digs, working with the local 'cancer aid' group...well, it's been really busy here.

Dr.Mowat, my Oncologist, has put me on a vitamin-D booster...as tests have shown that patients with stronger amounts of it in their system, get better performance out of their chemo treatment. He has me lined up for another CT scan on 05 / 06 / 2013, to see how the new treatment schedule is working. I'm now getting chemo once a month; 2nd Wednesday, and the pump removed on the Friday of that week. Last time we talked. I was getting it every 3rd Wednesday / Friday. Guess We're doing something right here!

Oh, about the "New Digs" remark...

Me and Sandy are separating; and might be getting a divorce down the road. The main reason is that Sandy has problems saving money. We get a combined total of $2229 from Medical Disability on the 3rd of the month (my 958, and Her 1271) and by the 12th of the month, I'm lucky to have $100 left in the account! She wants to eat out once a day...I'd rather stay home and cook. Has to have Her nails done once a month...I just chew mine off. I drink lots of tap water...She has to have diet Pepsi. You get the drift? We've seen a councilor...but, that only worked for a month or so. It came to a head in March when I had to borrow money from my older sister to pay the gas bill!

well...it was great while it lasted...

Visited some great comic shops while out on the West Coast...BUT THE PRICES!!! O M G ! You'd think that Scrooge McDuck owned them!

I'll be around more often...as Sandy had 'problems' with some of the artwork...and I don't.

LATER!
