hey,

got the newest EW and in the FEEDBACK section, it mentions possible replacements and one of them is Catherine Tate (Donna Noble-Season 4). I think it would be terrific. other candidates include:

Idris Elba
James Nesbitt
Rupert Grint
Hugh Laurie
Eddie Izzard
Richard Madden

even David Tennant. the writer suggests that the Doctor should "degenerate" for a few episodes that "regenerate" again. looking forward to seeing who they pick.

I was wondering since John Hurt is supposed to be the "Past Doctor", might he supposed to be one of the first three who passed away a while ago? just wondering.
