No. He is not going to be one of the 1st 3. His role is going to be the man this time lord was BEFORE he took the self appointed title of Doctor.

David (10th doctor is a possibility because His character was Cloned from the Severed hand from the Christmas Special between Season 1 end and the beginning of Season 2. This Clone is currently in an alternate Diminsion with Rose.

Donna Noble (Catherine Tate) Could not take on the Role because if that character remembers ANY of the events that happened after she became the Donna/Doctor she would die, as the strain would be too much for her human body to take.

One I see as a good candidate would be Georgia Moffit. She played the Doctor's Daughter in the episode called "The Doctor's Daughter" As she is a complete genetic clone from the Doctor's DNA.
