Another idea: I saw that you were talking Celebrities in choice number 4.

We could also have the mods (Or even a poll) pick a single celebrity and all the images have to use that celebrity. IE: The Kaptain Kangaroo I did I used Charlieze Theron's head on a poser figure. Entrants could use any medium, BUT they have to use an actual picture of the Celeb's face. None of these "It kinda looks like Jessica Biel" poser characters that are hitting the market. AND, the picked Celeb could be anything. A known character or a character of your own design. I mean, doesn't everyone want to do an image with Danny DeVito?

I like it!!! ummm... except for the Danny DeVito thing.

OK... consider me Punished!! Well played, Hawk!
