yeah. WTF indeed! i was real excited when i heard they were going to make a superman/batman teamup..mostly because despite his acting deficiencies Cavil was born to be superman. it kinda worried me when i heard that batman had not been cast yet..but i thought that after the batman trilogy and this latest superman reboot..maybe DC is finally taking its movie making seriously! and then i saw it..."ben affleck to plat batman" and my heart just sunk! Goddamit DC just when we were starting to like your heroes on the big screen you suckerpunch us. you'd think at least the producer would listen to the comic fans or at the very least go watch 'daredevil'. well good thing is i doubt i'll be losing any money on this one at the box office.
way to go DC..JERKS!
