Or, silly boy, you could win one of the Monthly Challenges. That's actually much easier, as far as I'm concerned.

This month's Challenge is a Halloween Theme (Why can't we ever do this Theme, in, like, April? Just wonderin...). Take any comic book character and put them in a Halloween Picture. Hey, if you make it a comic book cover, you'll kill two birds with one stone!
