Years ago when I first discovered Heromorph I was amazed by a lot of the art I saw and the art that really blew me away was what I would later find out was photomanipulations. One of the best was Walley. He along with other artists I found here inspired me to learn the art. Every manip I've made or will make would never have existed if not for artists like him and I am grateful for that. Rest In Peace Walley a piece of you will always live on here in Heromorph.

much respect Daswook
