I'm disappointed as well. This was such a cool twist, I was hoping to see more, too.

my own pathetic and weaselly excuse is that I fried my good graphics card shortly after that last render...coincidence, sure, but I don't think I'll put that many characters in one run again. This back-up old card works ok, but not well enough to appease my "stickler" for details nature. The new card should arrive this week. (Too little, too late)

So now that I'm done whining about my problems like a wuss...

I guarantee that I'll be on board for whatever Bandwidth has up her...um... sleeve next. So BRING IT, Babe!
