This has nothing to do with Superheroes... but this thread was started with a silly ass video... I am headed back that direction.

This video is one of those.

What in the hell?

To help you get onto that direction.

Okay... as to Jr.'s vid, I often find having an adult beverage or two before checking out his vids helps and so I came in prepared for this one and so I must agree, it is definitely in the "whuttha...??!!" category. That said, I laughed my arse off and HAD to watch the entire series! That damned hilarious song is so embedded in my head, I'm afraid the next time I see Hulk antics on The Avengers I may be singing 'bout a guy named Ruffalo!

As to OzZy's follow up, I was undecided... I got two for this one:

1. That's a good way to get your head caved in.

OR

2. She's got a great top but her can's a little flat.

You decide.
