Never really noticed this thread before... I'm not a new member, more a incredibly lazy member who doesn't check this site (or C2F, lately) often enough, LOL.

I posted this on C2F already, actually. B's my first initial. B for Blazej (Szpakowicz). Since my real name is (to be blunt) rather bizarre, friends have actually been using my initial as a nickname for me in "real life" forever. It was basically the first thing that came to mind when I started participating in online communities.
