Aw, schuks, you're trying to make me blush. As I promised, I'll definitely start the story for "Starlegacy" in full swing and I promise that it's has a lot more depth than the my published episodes show.

Perhaps one of my greatest regrets was that I spent nearly a year making the follow up for "The Protector of Faith" storyarc only to realize it would take me upwars to three years to upload the finished result. Not a good way to publish stuff...
