Can we make our own and post them here?

That you can post in the galleries or better yet, if you make a webcomic it will be a pleasure to publish it in our comics section.

No, the idea here is to share funny images you found online (if it's a webcomic, all the better), the site of the author and try to convince us to visit it.

Like this one I follow almost since I started browsing the web:

Derrick Fish is an illustrator and cartoonist from Florida, USA.

Works as an artist for The Wellkeeper but where I really enjoy his works is on his greatest creation (my opinion, of course): Dandy Q. Dog and you can find his brand new adventures at Dandy & Company.

There you can find such great comic strips as
