There is nothing I love more than a good Horror movie and Valentines day. Seeing as how Valentines day falls on a Saturday, that means we get a double bonus! A Friday the 13th right before.

Your challenge create an image of a slasher (Examples would be Freddy Kruger, Leather Face, Michael Myers, Chucky, etc.
either falling in love or their twisted idea of what love would be.

I would love to see these done and posted by 11:59 02/14/2015

Why the rush? to give you the feel of being chased down by a slasher or Valentines day stalker just before they kill you.

Have Fun :)

Submit your image with "Slasher Love Story" in the title.
